

Executive Summary

The Indian Real Estate Price Prediction System is a machine learning application developed to estimate property prices based on location and property attributes. The solution combines Streamlit, FastAPI, XGBoost, Pandas, and Joblib.

Objectives

Predict prices, automate valuation, provide real-time estimates, and demonstrate end-to-end ML deployment.

Business Value

Reduces manual effort, improves consistency, and provides decision support.